Introduction

Scholarships

A respect for scholarship and intellectual values is at the core of Woldingham's vision for our students and a clear goal of Sacred Heart education. Academic and co-curricular scholarships are offered at 11+, 13+ and Sixth Form.

As for all students, scholars are encouraged to develop a growth mind-set, to draw value from their experiences and approach their studies with creativity and resilience.

In addition to the financial award, the school provides ongoing mentoring for scholars and progress is monitored by teachers and the school leadership team.

Dependent on the type of scholarship, awards are typically made as a reduction of between 5% and 20% of day fees per year. We may also award Music Exhibitions to applicants with potential and this is usually offered as music tuition in their first instrument.

It is intended that a scholarship award will be appropriate for a student's entire education at Woldingham, conditional upon the maintenance of expected standards of behaviour, attendance, performance and effort.

Within this booklet you will find guidance on the scholarships Woldingham offers, timelines to follow, and all of the relevant application forms.

Bursaries

Woldingham School remains committed to broadening access to the school by offering eligible parents/guardians means-tested financial support with the payment of school fees. We call these 'Entry Bursaries'.

The school supports the full costs of these bursaries, which means we cannot commit to a set number of bursaries or an amount in any one year. We are committed to providing bursaries on day tuition fees only each year. These are intended for girls who demonstrate strong academic potential and will contribute to, and benefit from, the many opportunities offered by the school and whose family's financial circumstances would make attending Woldingham School impossible.

If you have any questions at all please contact the Admissions Office.

Academic Scholarships

What does being an Academic Scholar at Woldingham School mean?

Academic scholarships are offered on the basis of excellent results in Woldingham's entrance assessment tests, which identify girls with high academic potential.

Within the classroom, academic scholars are encouraged and stretched with differentiated activities. We expect academic scholars to continue to meet the highest academic standards and to take part in a variety of enrichment activities from the wide range available.

Academic scholars in Years 7-11 follow Woldingham's Kritikos programme to encourage critical flexibility and nurture independent and enquiring minds.

Kritikos is Woldingham's programme for academic scholars in Years 7-11. Kritikos comes from the ancient Greek idea of intellectual discernment. It is the ability to judge and evaluate rather than simply recite information.

The Kritikos programme comprises:

- One-to-one meetings between each student and the Kritikos Coordinator. These sessions consist of a discussion of students' interests within and beyond the curriculum and their wider reading, and develop into mini seminars where students have to think on their feet and respond to probing questions on their field of research.
- Small group debates and discussions. Some are prompted by a series of 'What If' statements such as 'What if there were no laws?' These give students the opportunity to explore current affairs, philosophy, sciences, arts and humanities.
- Staff and student led short lectures. Recent examples include cryptic crosswords, the psychology of obedience to authority, growth mind-sets and history of art.
- Students complete a 'Curiosity Project', a significant piece of independent research often inspired by a trip to a museum. This culminates in a presentation to parents and peers over afternoon tea and discussion.

Students compile these experiences into an electronic Kritikos Review document.

Our philosophy is based on the principles of ensemble work in which generosity of spirit and co-operation within the group are conducive to artistic achievement. Spontaneity, inner confidence and an enthusiasm for experimentation are of more interest to us than an ingrained, over-directed performance style. It should be noted that we are looking for real potential as much as for existing talent. Whilst high grades in Speech and Drama exams will be noted, these results are not the only criteria we will be considering. It will be just as possible for a student to achieve a scholarship at Woldingham having taken no exams in Speech and Drama.

What does being a Drama Scholar at Woldingham School mean?
