

Woldingham Talks

All events
start at 3.30pm

We are delighted to present our series of Woldingham Talks for this term. These will take place remotely via Teams at 3.30pm on the dates shown.

Woldingham Talks aim to provide insight and stimulation for students on a wide range of subjects.

We strongly encourage you to join these talks live for the best experience. Recordings will be available. The talks will last 15-20 minutes and the panel events will last an hour.

Tues 19 January	Sarah Scholefield, Global CEO, Grayling PR
Tues 26 January	Chris Scattergood, CRO & Founder, Fundamental VR
Thurs 28 January	Charlotte Wallis (Upper Sixth) 'Homer the poet, Homer the producer'
Tues 2 February	Taisie Lewis (2019) and speaker (tbc) Anthropology at Durham University
Tues 9 February	Property - Panel event, various speakers
Thurs 11 February	Mr Smith 'Behavioural economics & COVID'
Tues 23 February	Natalia Glazman (2019) and Mrs Baldwin (tbc)
Tues 2 March	Marcus Wareham, Facebook & Instagram
Thurs 4 March	Mrs Deaney 'Animal intelligence'
Tues 9 March	Women in Business - Panel event, various speakers
Thurs 11 March	Jemima Smith (Lower Sixth) 'How classical musicians make money in the 21st century'
Tues 16 March	James Cons, MD, Leslie Jones Architecture
Thurs 18 March	Milly Smith (Lower Sixth) 'Did Orwell predict Trump?'
Tues 23 March	Women and the Workplace (Lower Sixth) Panel event, various speakers
Thurs 25 March	Molly Corbett (Lower Sixth) 'Theology/Philosophy/Ethics'

Working lunch: an alumna or parent presenting on their career field, advice, insight, experience etc.

'In conversation with': an alumna undergraduate interviewed by a member of staff about their chosen subject, course and university life.

Thinking Big: a member of staff or a student presenting on a favourite subject.

Panel event: a discussion panel of 4-6 speakers giving insight and advice on a particular career area.